Plastic Cases for Card USB

The Flash Pac is a tough, crystal-clear USB drive casing that resembles a DVD or Blu-ray case in many ways. It contains a slot for a flash drive cap and can accommodate thumb drives of the normal size. You have the option to add a flyer, leaflet, or brochure by using the literature clips on the inner front cover of this USB case. This USB case's clear outside overlay provides an area for holding the cover image, enhancing creative possibilities. you can customize this product with your branding logo.
